By completing and signing this form your congregation agrees that the Controller's office of the Diocese of New York is authorized both to debit donations from the bank accounts of members of your congregation who have authorized it and to credit them to the congregation's account. You are authorizing transactions only under the E-pledging service.

The debits and credits will occur on the 5th and/or the 20th of each month (or the next business day). A statement will be mailed to the congregation after each transaction listing the members whose contributions have been credited to your account and the amount of each contribution.

You agree to keep the diocesan office informed in a timely fashion of all enrollments, terminations and changes of your members in E-pledging.

Please attach a voided check from the congregation's account.
